INTRODUCTION

The Drug Free Schools and Campuses Regulations (34 CFR, Part 86) of the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA) require an institution of higher education to certify it has adopted and implemented programs to prevent the abuse of alcohol and use or distribution of illicit drugs both by students and employees both on the premises and as part of any activities.

At a minimum each institution of higher education must annually distribute the following in writing to all students and employees:

- Standards of conduct that clearly prohibit the unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees.
- A description of the legal sanctions under local, state, or federal law for the unlawful possession or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol.
- A description of any drug or alcohol counseling, treatment, or rehabilitation or re-entry programs that are available to employees or students.
- A clear statement that the institution will impose sanctions on students and employees and a description of those sanctions up to and including expulsion or termination of employment and referral for prosecution, for violations of the standards of conduct.

The law further requires that the institution conduct a biennial review of its program with the following objectives:

- Determine the effectiveness of the policy and implement changes to the program, if needed.
- Ensure that the sanctions developed are enforced consistently.

The biennial review must also include a determination as to:

- The number of drug- and alcohol-related violations and fatalities occurring on the campus or as part of their activities that are reported to campus officials; and
- The number and type of sanctions the school imposes on employees as a result of such violations or fatalities.

The school acknowledges a legal obligation to conduct a biennial review of compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act and authorized an administrative review to be conducted to determine if the school fulfills the requirements of the Federal regulations.

The following school offices will have representatives on the Biennial Review Committee: the President's Office, the Counseling Office, the Human Resources Office and the Dean of Students.

MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Eastern School of Acupuncture and Traditional Medicine is to offer professional training, education and services in acupuncture, Oriental medicine, and the traditional healing modalities that enhance the health and well-being of the greater community.

ESATM DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY

ESATM has a zero tolerance policy regarding alcohol and drugs on campus and will strictly enforce this policy. Controlled substances, such as marijuana and cocaine, are illegal by state and federal law. No one is to report for work or class evidencing any effects of alcoholic consumption or under the influence of drugs. The sale of alcoholic beverages and controlled substances are also prohibited on school premises. Anyone violating this policy will be removed from school property and disciplinary action will be taken. The local Police Department will also be notified of any findings of drugs. The College enforces policies and laws regarding alcohol and other drug use. Students and staff are referred to various agencies to receive help with drug or alcohol problems.

The College is committed to provide students, faculty, staff and visitors with a safe and healthful campus and workplace. The College recognizes the health risks associated with controlled substance use and alcohol misuse and is committed to supporting students and employees who seek treatment for these conditions. The College recognizes that controlled substance use and alcohol misuse diminish workplace and campus safety and undermine the school's ability to fulfill its mission. Compliance with this policy is considered a condition of employment and attendance at the College.

The purpose of this handbook is to provide information on federal and state laws on illegal substance possession and reporting procedures for such violations. The handbook outlines college drug and alcohol policies, details college sanctions, and provides a list of off-campus prevention and awareness programs available to students and employees.

The Eastern School informs its employees and students of its policies through the annual distribution of its College Drug and Alcohol Handbook. Each individual signs a receipt, acknowledging they have received the Handbook. The receipts are filed in the drug and alcohol binder. Reports made of drug and alcohol violations are included in this binder and in annual crime statistics. College policies on alcohol and drugs are also posted on the Student Lounge bulletin board.

A comprehensive study of the alcohol and drug policy was conducted for the previous two years. The College is in compliance with the Drug Free Schools regulations, has an effective policy, consistently enforces standards of behavior and distributes the policy in writing to the school's students and employees. The school has developed a comprehensive approach to address alcohol and other drug issues on campus. We will continue to develop, evaluate, assess and pursue the best practices for the school to create a safe and healthy environment for our students.

Health Risks

The following briefly summarizes health risks and symptoms associated with the use of alcohol and other drugs. It is important to note that individuals experience alcohol and drugs in different ways based on physical tolerance, body size and gender, and on a variety of other physical and psychological factors.

Alcohol:

Alcohol consumption causes a number of changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person's ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described. Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations and convulsions. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver. Mothers who drink during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than others of developing alcohol-related problems.

Student Use of Alcoholic Beverages:

All students are responsible for complying with State law regarding the use of alcohol

- In most states, the minimum legal age to possess alcohol is 21.
- Persons 21 or over may not make alcoholic beverages available to minors.
- Misrepresentation of age for the purpose of purchasing alcoholic beverages is a violation of state law.

Cigarettes and other Nicotine Products:

In 1989, the U.S. Surgeon General issued a report that concluded that cigarettes and other forms of tobacco, such as cigars, pipe tobacco and chewing tobacco, are addictive and that nicotine is the drug in tobacco that causes addiction. In addition, the report determined that smoking was a major cause of stroke and the third leading cause of death in the United States. Nicotine is both a stimulant and a sedative to the central nervous system. The lungs absorb nicotine from cigarette, cigar or pipe smoke. Nicotine also is absorbed readily when tobacco is chewed.

In addition to nicotine, cigarette smoke is primarily composed of a dozen gases (mainly carbon monoxide) and tar. The tar in a cigarette, which varies from about 15 mg for a regular cigarette to 7 mg in a low-tar cigarette, exposes the user to a highly toxic substance attributed to causing lung cancer, emphysema, and bronchial disorders. The carbon monoxide in the smoke increases the chance of cardiovascular diseases. The Environmental Protection Agency has concluded that secondhand smoke causes lung cancer in adults and greatly increases the risk of respiratory illnesses in children and sudden infant death.

ESATM is a drug, alcohol, and smoke free campus. Vapes are also prohibited from use on school facilities.

Prescription Medications:

Prescription drugs that are abused or used for non-medical reasons can alter brain activity and lead to dependence. Commonly abused classes of prescription drugs include opioids (often prescribed in the treatment of pain), central nervous system depressants (often prescribed to treat anxiety and sleep disorders), and stimulants (prescribed to treat narcolepsy, ADHD, and obesity). Long-term use of opioids or central nervous system depressants can lead to physical dependence and addiction. Taken in high doses, stimulants can lead to compulsive use, paranoia, dangerously high body temperatures and irregular heartbeat.

Marijuana:

Marijuana use can lead to a number of long term and short term physical and psychological effects. Marijuana use leads to a substantial increase in the heart rate, impairs short term memory, and can alter comprehension and motivation.

Cocaine and Crack:

Health risks may include changes in body temperature and blood pressure as well as heart and breathing rates. Even small amounts may cause the body to exceed its own limits, sometimes resulting in death. Snorting cocaine may severely damage nasal tissue and the septum. Smoking cocaine may damage the lungs. Someone using cocaine may experience muscle twitching, panic reactions, anxiety, numbness in hands and feet, loss of weight, a period of hyperactivity followed by a crash, a runny or bleeding nose, and depression. Other symptoms of cocaine use may include nausea, vomiting, insomnia, tremors, and convulsions. Chronic users may become paranoid and/or experience hallucinations.

Barbiturates:

In small doses, barbiturates produce calmness, relaxed muscles, and lowered anxiety. Larger doses cause slurred speech, staggering gait, and altered perception. Very large doses or doses taken in combination with other central nervous system depressants (e.g., alcohol) may cause respirator depression, coma and even death. A person who uses barbiturates may have poor muscle control, appear drowsy or drunk, become confused, irritable, or inattentive, or have slowed reactions.

Amphetamines:

Amphetamines, methamphetamines, or other stimulants can cause increased heart rate and respiratory rates, elevated blood pressure, and dilated pupils. Larger doses cause rapid or irregular heartbeat, tremors, and physical collapse. An amphetamine injection creates a sudden increase in blood pressure that can result in stroke, high fever, heart failure and death. An individual who is on amphetamines might begin to lose weight, have the sweats, and appear restless, anxious, moody, and unable to focus. Extended use may produce psychosis, including hallucinations, delusions and paranoia.

Hallucinogens:

PCP, or angel dust, interrupts the part of the brain that controls the intellect and keeps instincts in check. PCP blocks pain receptors. Violent episodes, including self-inflicted injuries, are not uncommon. Chronic users report memory loss and speech difficulty. Very large doses produce convulsions, coma, heart and lung failure, or ruptured blood vessels in the brain. LSD, mescaline, peyote, etc. cause dilated pupils, elevated body temperature, increased heart rate and blood pressure and tremors. Someone under the influence of PCP might appear moody, aggressive, or violent. Other signs are sleeplessness, confusion, anxiety, and panic, and perceptual distortions. Flashbacks may occur.

Steroids (anabolic):

Anabolic steroids are human-made substances related to male sex hormones. Some athletes abuse anabolic steroids to enhance performance. Abuse of anabolic steroids can lead to serious health problems, some of which are irreversible. Short term side effects include depression, hallucinations, paranoia, severe mood swings and aggressive behavior. Major side effects also can include liver tumors and cancer, jaundice, high blood pressure, kidney tumors, severe acne and trembling. In males side effects may include shrinking of the testicles and breast development. In females, side effects may include growth of facial hair, menstrual changes and deepened voice. In teenagers, growth may be halted prematurely and permanently.

Narcotics:

Because narcotics are generally injected, the use of contaminated needles may result in the contraction of many different diseases, including AIDS and hepatitis. Symptoms of overdose include shallow breathing, clammy skin, convulsions, and coma and may result in death. Some signs of narcotic use are euphoria, drowsiness, constricted pupils, and nausea. Other symptoms include itchy skin, needle or “track” marks on the arms and legs, nodding, lack of sex drive and appetite, sweating, cramps and nausea when withdrawing from the drug.

Drug Abuse Violations:

These are violations of state and local laws relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing, and making of narcotic drugs. The relevant substances include opium or cocaine and their derivatives (morphine, heroin, codeine); marijuana; synthetic narcotics (Demerol, methadone); and dangerous non-narcotic drugs (barbiturates, Benzedrine).

Treatment:

Medication and behavioral therapy, alone or in combination, are aspects of an overall therapeutic process that often begins with detoxification, followed by treatment and relapse prevention. Easing withdrawal symptoms can be important in the initiation of treatment; preventing relapse is necessary for maintaining its effects. And sometimes, as with other chronic conditions, episodes of relapse may require a return to prior treatment components. A continuum of care that includes a customized treatment regimen, addressing all aspects of an individual’s life including medical and mental health services, and follow-up options (e.g. community or family based recovery support systems) can be crucial to a person’s success in achieving and maintaining a drug-free lifestyle.

3. The appeal process shall consist of a review of the hearing and all evidence supporting the determination, as well as any new evidence presented by the person in support of his/her appeal. A second hearing shall not be called on the case. Any change of the outcome of the hearing based upon the appeal shall be determined by the Judicial Board at their discretion, based upon any new data presented in the appeal. The decision of the Judicial Board at that point shall be considered the final determination of the case.

Immediate Suspension

No person of the Eastern School shall be summarily suspended from the school without a full hearing. However, a person will be immediately suspended from the Eastern School in the event that the person either threatens violence or commits a violent act against another person in the school, is deemed to be guilty of sexual misconduct, poses a serious danger to another person in the school or to him or herself, or has been convicted of committing a criminal act.

Re-Entry Policy for Students

If a student has been suspended or dismissed from the Eastern School and has been allowed to return to the College, and the duration of the time absent has been greater than one trimester, the student shall be required to take a re-entrance examination for appropriate placement within the program. Once the appropriate placement has been determined by the Academic Dean, the student's enrollment will be based upon the current tuition rate and per credit rate, if applicable. The student must sign a new enrollment agreement and a statement of intent. The student will be on probation for no less than one trimester.

4. Restitution: If it has been determined that a person has damaged or misappropriated school property, reimbursement to the school for the cost of the damage or misappropriation may be demanded.
5. Monetary Fine: The Title IX Coordinator reserves the right to impose a monetary fine for appropriate infractions.
6. Temporary Suspension: The Title IX Coordinator reserves the right to temporarily suspend a person from the Eastern School classes, special privileges, or from work as set forth in a notice of disciplinary probation for a specified period of time.
7. Dismissal from the Eastern School: The Title IX Coordinator reserves the right to dismiss a person from attending the Eastern School for an indefinite period of time. This includes termination of employment. Certain conditions for readmission may be determined by the Title IX Coordinator.
8. Transcript Notation: The Title IX Coordinator reserves the right to affix a notation to a student's transcript indicating a disciplinary action. This transcript notation may be permanent or temporary, as to be determined by the Title IX Coordinator.
9. Employee File Notation: The Title IX Coordinator reserves the right to affix a notation to an employee file indicating a disciplinary action. This employee file notation may be permanent or temporary, as to be determined by the Title IX Coordinator.

For serious crimes, law enforcement sanctions will be determined by the local police department and depending on the crime, may be more severe.
