

IPEDS-Student Body Statistics

The Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS) system is built around a series of interrelated surveys that collect school-level data in such areas as – school characteristics, enrollments, program completions, staffing patterns, faculty salaries, finances, financial aid and student body demographics. Information on IPEDS is available at – <http://www.nces.ed.gov/IPEDS>.