

Upcoming Continuing Education Seminars with Dr. Deb Davies, DACM, L.Ac.

Course Topic: The Art of Perinatal Acupuncture: Transformative Care for Pregnant Women

Presenter: Dr. Deb Davies, DACM, L.Ac. is passionately following her calling by supporting 1000's of families naturally throughout their pregnancy, birth, and postpartum journeys. She's a Chinese medicine doctor, an educator, a mentor, a Best Selling author, a birth doula, and a mother. Deb created PUSH Professional's online mentorship program for licensed acupuncturists that teaches them everything they'd want to know about pregnancy, birth & postpartum. Her mission statement is to empower pregnant couples to have safe and healthy pregnancies, births, and recoveries by offering natural options in healthcare. Dr. Deb's goal would be to have an acupuncturist at every Labor & Delivery in hospitals around the world

Program Description: This comprehensive 8-hour CEU class is designed to equip licensed acupuncturists with the knowledge and skills to confidently support pregnant women through every stage of the perinatal period. Delving into the ancient wisdom of Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) and modern clinical insights, this course will explore safe and effective acupuncture techniques to address the unique physiological and emotional changes during pregnancy. Participants will learn how to alleviate common pregnancy-related discomforts, promote optimal fetal positioning, and support labor preparation and postpartum recovery. This hands-on course will empower practitioners to elevate their practice and provide transformative care to pregnant women, ensuring safe and effective outcomes.
