

Upcoming Continuing Education Seminars with Kiiko Matsumoto

Saturday's Topic: The Importance of Treating the Neck and Its Major Structures

Saturday's Course Description: Treatment of the neck is extremely important as it is the bridge between the brain and the body. Major pathways in the neck will be reviewed such as the SCM, Vagus Nerve, Basilar Artery as well as how these structures directly affect symptoms of various diseases. Demonstrations will be given to show how points can release the neck thereby addressing patient's concerns of diagnoses such as neurological diseases, any complaints of the head and neck and even cardiac and digestive concerns.

Sunday's Topic: Using Scalp Points for Head and Upper Warmer Symptoms

Sunday's Course Description: Theory and review of scalp points that relate to neurological conditions and the movement of qi through the chest will be discussed. Gallbladder and Triple Warmer channels will be discussed in the effectiveness with headaches associated with these channels and difficulties with Upper Warmer organs that manifest as shortness of breath, any cardiac issues along with emotional problems.

Presenter: Kiiko Matsumoto, the world-renowned acupuncturist and teacher, will offer master classes at the Eastern School of Acupuncture and Traditional Medicine. Internationally known for her scholarly work in acupuncture, Matsumoto is recognized for her ability to integrate the work of the Japanese Masters into a coherent and clinically effective style.
